ORDER DENYING MOTION FOR RECONSIDERATION

This matter came before the Court upon the Motion for Reconsideration, Motion to Stay the Order, and Request for Emergency Hearing (the “Kapitus Motion”) filed on November 26, 2024, by Kapitus Servicing, Inc., a servicing agent for Kapitus, LLC (“Kapitus”). See ECF Doc. No. 61. Kapitus sought reconsideration to vacate the Court’s Second Interim Order Authorizing the Use of Cash Collateral entered at ECF Doc. No. 58 (the “Second Interim Order”), citing ¹ The Debtors in these chapter 11 cases and the last four digits of each Debtor’s federal taxpayer identification number are as follows: BlueSummit Medical Group LLC (9384), Oasis HH Operations LLC (5349), Shenandoah Valley Home Health Inc. (4608), Seven Hills Hospice, LLC (8231), Seven Hills Home Health, Inc. (0554), Ashland Development Company, Inc. (6734), ProCare TN Operations LLC (2100), Reliable Home Health Care LLC (0294). The location of Debtor BlueSummit Medical Group LLC’s principal place of business is: 14805 Forest Road, Suite 205, Forest, Virginia 24551.

Rule 59(e) and Rule 60(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, applicable to this proceeding by Rule 9023 and Rule 9024 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure. Kapitus also sought a stay of the Second Interim Order.

The Second Interim Order authorized the use of certain cash collateral as set forth in the Debtors' budget (including for the purpose of paying non-insider employee wages and patient care needs) and provided adequate protection to Kapitus in the form of replacement liens and weekly payments after allocating for the budget items. In its motion, Kapitus requested that the Court hold an "emergency" evidentiary hearing prior to December 6, 2024, which was the Court's first available date for an in-person evidentiary hearing and which was the date given to counsel for Kapitus (prior to the filing of her motion) in response to her request for an emergency hearing date. While the Court was unavailable to conduct an in-person hearing prior to December 6, 2024, due in part to the Thanksgiving holiday, the Court held a hearing on the Kapitus Motion on December 6, 2024.

Vacating an order is an extreme remedy. Under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 60(b), the Court may vacate a prior order for:

- (1) mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect;
- (2) newly discovered evidence that, with reasonable diligence, could not have been discovered in time to move for a new trial under Rule 59(b);
- (3) fraud (whether previously called intrinsic or extrinsic), misrepresentation, or misconduct by an opposing party;
- (4) the judgment is void;
- (5) the judgment has been satisfied, released, or discharged; it is based on an earlier judgment that has been reversed or vacated; or applying it prospectively is no longer equitable; or
- (6) any other reason that justifies relief.

Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b).

Having reviewed the pleadings, considered the applicable law, and heard the arguments presented at the evidentiary hearing on December 6, 2024, the Court is satisfied none of the bases under Rule 60(b)(1)–(5) are present. The only remaining potential ground under Rule 60 is the “catch-all” provision of Rule 60(b)(6), which allows a court to vacate its prior order for “any . . . reason that justifies relief” other than the more specific circumstances set out in Rule 60(b)(1)–(5). Kapitus emphasized its disagreement with the Second Interim Order and dissatisfaction with the sufficiency of the evidence in support of the ruling as justification to vacate the order. The Court finds that disagreement with the prior order does not justify entering an order to vacate it.

The Court may grant a motion to alter or amend a judgment under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 59(e) “(1) to accommodate an intervening change in controlling law; (2) to account for new evidence not available at trial; or (3) to correct a clear error of law or prevent manifest injustice.” United States v. Westinghouse Savannah River Co., 305 F.3d 284, 290 (4th Cir. 2002). Kapitus did not cite a change in controlling law, newly discovered evidence, or a clear error of law. Kapitus emphasized at the December 6 hearing that the Court must ensure there is adequate protection for the use of cash collateral otherwise Kapitus would be irreparably harmed, implying reconsideration is necessary to prevent manifest injustice.

The Court acknowledges the disputed nature of Kapitus’s asserted interest. At the hearing on December 6, the Court heard testimony from David Wolfson, Vice President of Risk Management for Kapitus, and admitted into evidence documents regarding Kapitus’s interest. The Court also heard testimony from Jayson Norris, Director of Finance for Blue Summit, who described the operations of the Debtors during the chapter 11 case. The Court is satisfied that Kapitus has shown it has an interest in cash collateral, and despite Kapitus’s objections, is satisfied the Second Interim Order does provide sufficient adequate protection of that interest. Specifically, there is no evidence that the value of Kapitus’s interest has declined due to the use of cash collateral, plus the Second Interim Order provided replacement liens to Kapitus and weekly adequate protection payments. See ECF Doc. No. 58. In addition, the Debtors' use of cash collateral was, and remains, appropriate to pay employees who have already performed critical end-of-life care for patients and whose work generated receivables for the Debtors (upon which the Court's Second Interim Order granted a replacement lien to Kapitus). The Court finds no cause to reverse a ruling that authorized payment for those essential services.

Currently, there is no basis for relief under Rule 59(e) or Rule 60(b) to reconsider the Second Interim Order. Further, there is no basis to stay the Second Interim Order. The Kapitus Motion complains that "[b]y its terms the Second Interim Order became immediately effective and enforceable upon the entry notwithstanding any applicability of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h)." Rule 6004(h) provides that an order other than for use of cash collateral is stayed for fourteen days. Because this is an order authorizing the use of cash collateral, the Court is not persuaded that grounds exist to impose a stay of the Order under Rule 6004(h) when the Rule does not contemplate such. In any event, the Kapitus Motion requests a stay "pending the resolution of Kapitus' Motion to Reconsider." Given the denial of the reconsideration request, the stay requested is no longer necessary.

Accordingly, it is

that the Kapitus Motion, ECF Doc. No. 61, is DENIED. The Court acknowledges that Kapitus, through counsel, objects to the Court's ruling and objects to the entry of this order.
